Submission Requirements

1. All works for competition must honour the mission of the event, and must not contain any content of violence, crime, obscenity, bullying, hatred, discrimination, etc.
2. Participants must enter items of the correct age group. Each participant can register one to three items.
3. Work submitted must match the name of the competition item entered, e.g. for competition item “Self-selected Five-Character Quatrain”, the recital work submitted must be a Chinese poem with four lines and 5 characters in a line.
4. Putonghua must be used in all speaking and performing items. Both simplified and traditional Chinese characters are accepted and equally credited for written work.
5. All writing must be handwritten. Both traditional and simplified Chinese are accepted. Writing needs to be neat and legible.
6. Submitted work, including but not limited to composition and visual art, must not bear the participant’s name or any other personal information.
7. Submitted video must be a full-body video, with reasonable space above the head, for the judges to assess the participant’s stage manner and to determine whether the performance matches the characteristics of the work presented.
8. Videos must be shot indoors in a quiet, well-lit environment. The background of each video must be simple and clear.
9. Images and videos must be the original take with no editing or post-production refinement.
10. For performing items, appropriate props, music, and costumes may be used, although they are not necessarily essential for credit.
11. Recital videos must not contain music or sound effect.
12. For recital items, participants must report the title of the work and the name of the author before starting. Either modern or archaic pronunciation may be used for classical poetry, each earning equal credits.
